THE TOMMY GODWIN STORY

By

Tommy Godwin

This is a fascinating story of one of Britain's most successful track racing cyclists. Born in America of British parents, Godwin came to England as a child and experienced difficult times during the depression years. Dedication to scientific training, before such ideas were common, enabled him to win many National titles. He won outright three gold trophies. Two put up by BSA (for whom he also worked), the BSA Gold Column and BSA Gold Vase, and a third, the Muratti Gold Cup, put up by the Manchester Wheelers. Perhaps he is most proud of his two bronze medals in the 1948 Olympics. Godwin raced against many of the World's best: this book tells the stories without pulling any punches and is illustrated with over 50 great photographs. At a time when Britain is top of the World as a track cycling nation, this book describes Tommy's efforts both as a rider and a coach to put us on the map during the truly amateur days.
